The Vermont Natural Resources Board (NRB) convened at 9:02 a.m. via Microsoft Teams, Chair Sabina Haskell presiding.

I. 9:02 a.m. Welcome and Introductions

Chair Haskell welcomed those in attendance.

II. 9:05 a.m. Opportunity for public to comment and agenda and non-agenda items

Chair Haskell offered the public the opportunity to comment.

John Brabant is listening in today and interested in substantial changes potential in this legislative session.

Annette Smith has a question about a provision in draft legislation about forest blocks, that calls on the NRB to do rule making. Ms. Smith asks, has the NRB ever done rulemaking, and given that this legislation has a timeframe for when it's to be completed, can you explain what the rule-making process looks like at the NRB. Chair Haskell said the NRB does have rule-making authority. Attorney Ronis gave an overview that we follow the Administrative Procedures Act (APA) for our rule-making process. Ms. Smith shared her opinion that rulemaking isn't necessary, is not sure why it's in the legislation and where it came from. Ms. Smith suggests that as the NRB presents to the House and Senate committee that the NRB explore why rulemaking is necessary.

Ms. Smith had additional comments about the Necessary Updates to Act 250 legislative report. While the draft legislation would reduce the necessary funding for the program, it is a massive cost-shifting to the municipalities. NRB is playing an important role in enforcement and would like to see more action on compliance.

Mr. Brabant has comments about his experience on the Calais Selectboard about litigation the town is involved in, and the burden and cost associated with that. Concerned about seeing settlements on cases where there is a violation of the law. Enforcement and compliance aren't budgeted for at the municipal level.

III. 9:34 a.m. Review and action on minutes of November 14, 2023

A motion to approve the minutes of the Tuesday, November 14, 2023, meeting was made by Mr. Aldrich, and seconded by Mr. Collier by the members that attended the November 14, 2023, meeting as follows.

IV. 9:35 a.m. NRB office and budget updates

Chair Haskell offered that there is a potential change of space for our Rutland district office coming in the spring.

Business Director Lomonaco provided the following update: NRB FY25 budget was submitted. NRB also submitted a budget adjustment request for FY24 due to anticipated application fee reductions resulting from the HOME Act. The NRB was awarded the budget adjustment which will be reflected in our FY24 budget.

NRB submitted a fee report to the Joint Fiscal Office as well as several House and Senate committees in December 2023. That report itemized NRB special fund revenue streams under different statutory provisions for the last 5 fiscal years FY19-FY23. This was a required study under Act 78 of 2023..

The NRB scanning project reached a milestone, shipping out the first 110 boxes from our D4 office yesterday to be digitized. It is great to see this project moving forward.. The second shipment of records is scheduled for later this year.
